

Notice of a Police Appeals Tribunal – Former PC Andrew Goff

Tribunal Information

Former Police Constable Andrew Goff appeals against the Gross Misconduct finding and outcome made under the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2020.

Allegations

Finding made under the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2020 – that former PC Andrew Goff submitted false overtime claims on six occasions between September 2020 and January 2021.

Standards of Professional Behaviour breached

The panel found that former PC Andrew Goff breached the expected standards of professional behaviour in the areas of:

- Honesty and Integrity

Outcome following misconduct hearing

Dismissal without notice.

Date of Police Appeals Tribunal: 22nd July 2022

Time: 10:00am

Venue: To be held virtually via MS Teams

Registration

If you would like to attend this Police Appeals Tribunal then please email the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk (OPCCN) at OPCCN@norfolk.police.uk or telephone 01953 424455 with the following details:

- Full name
- Email address
- Organisation
- Contact telephone number

You will be required to pre-register at least two working days before the Tribunal hearing and agree to the following conditions of entry:

- Recording the hearing is strictly prohibited – no recording equipment, photographic equipment or audio equipment are allowed in the proceedings.
- No social media report is allowed whilst evidence is being presented.
- You must not disrupt proceedings – your entry is as an observer only and any disruption may result in you being removed from the hearing and you will not be allowed access to the remainder of the hearing.
- The Chair may impose other conditions before or at the hearing at his/her discretion.

You will be sent a MS Teams meeting invite to the hearing from the OPCCN which you can access on the day (please check your email spam or junk folder in your mailbox).

Outcome following Police Appeals Tribunal: Appeal upheld.