

Partner organisations include:

- Home Office
- Ministry of Justice
- Norfolk County Council
- NHS
- Local Authorities
- Community Safety Partnerships
- Criminal Justice Partnerships
- Health & Wellbeing Partnerships
- Business Organisations
- Voluntary and Community Sector
- Safeguarding Boards

"We are independent of the Police and hold them to account"

"We advise the Police and Crime Commissioner and ensure they act legally and ethically at all times"

"We enable the voice of the victim and the Norfolk community to be heard"

OFFICE OF THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER

A BRIDGE BETWEEN THE NORFOLK COMMUNITY AND THE POLICE

External factors that influence our work...

- Social and healthcare issues
- Government's political agenda
- The economic and employment situation
- New Laws and Policing Rules and Regulations
- Changes and amendments to Policy

Performance and Scrutiny

The services we provide include:

- Develop Police and Crime Plan
- Corporate Governance including Freedom of Information (FOI) requests and risk management
- Independent Custody Visiting - checking on the welfare of detainees in custody

Policy and Commissioning

The services we provide include:

- Commissioning services for victims, including domestic abuse and sexual violence
- Initiatives to prevent and reduce offending
- Bidding for additional Government funding
- Restorative Justice Service
- Norfolk and Suffolk Victim Care

Communications

The services we provide include:

- Engagement on plans and decisions
- Public relations
- Media relations
- Graphic design and publications
- Website and social media

"I ensure all our financial dealings are legal and compliant..."

"I am the financial adviser to the PCC and help them allocate the Police budget (based on the Police and Crime Plan)"

OPCCN Chief Finance Officer (CFO)

PCC Objective
Liaise with the Public to understand their ideas and concerns about policing in Norfolk

"We focus on supporting victims and preventing offending"

PCC Objective
Develop and implement the Police and Crime Plan and allocate budget accordingly

PCC Objective
Support AND challenge the Chief Constable in relation to their work and the performance of Norfolk Constabulary

OPCCN Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

"I am Head of Service for the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner"

"I help the PCC manage the performance of the Chief Constable"

PCC is NOT responsible for day to day Police operations

PCC Objective
Contribute to and influence police and crime policy at a national level

£
% share of Norfolk Council Tax Income

£££
Central Government Police Fund

£££
Ministry of Justice funding

How the OPCCN is funded...

Bridge to the Police

"I'm really looking forward to discussing the things that matter to me at this meeting!"

"If you'd like to go up, the meeting is about to start"

Business Support

The engine room of the Office ensuring the efficient running of the OPCCN

"I'm really angry about the way I was treated!"

"I can give you guidance on making a complaint..."

"I'm after some information about..."

Police & Crime Commissioner (PCC)

Chief Constable
"I provide leadership and direction for policing in Norfolk"

"Here's the operational performance information you asked for"

Bridge to the Public

Police and Crime Commissioner ACCOUNTABLE TO:

- The Public/Electorate
- The Police and Crime Panel
- Police Rules and Regulations
- The Law

KEY

PCC = Police and Crime Commissioner

OPCCN = Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk

Work together with surrounding PCCs and Police Forces

