Dear Member of Public

Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/145

I am writing in connection with your email dated 3rd May 2018, in which you requested the following information:

“Dear Sir or Madam,

Please send to me any record of information that shows the United States of America Department of Defense committed electoral fraud at any of the following elections and referenda:

June 23rd 2016 United Kingdom European Union membership referendum.

June 8th 2017 United Kingdom general election.

November 8th 2016 United States of America congressional and presidential election.

April 23rd 2017 – May 7th 2017 French presidential election.

October 15th 2017 Austrian legislative election.

May 29th 2017 Irish Fine Gael leadership election.

March 4th 2018 Italian general election.

Also, please send to me any record of information that shows the United States of American Department of Defense plans to commit electoral fraud at the May 3rd 2018 United Kingdom local elections.”

I have reviewed our records and I can advise that no information is held by the OPCCN.

Yours sincerely

Sharon Lister
Director of Performance and Scrutiny

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner
For Norfolk

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write, in the first instance, to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 8
Jubilee House
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455

Fax: 01953 424462

Email: opccn@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Officer recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.gov.uk
