Dear Member of Public

Freedom of Information Request FOI/OPCCN/156

I am writing in connection with your email dated 18th August 2018, in which you requested the following information:

“Dear Freedom of Information Officer,

As pure the rights of the FOIA, I would like to request the following information please:

1. What has been the total financial cost of the commissioning, consultancy, publication and promotion e.g. Roadshows of the 'Case for Change' fire consultation.”

I have reviewed our records and the table below sets out the costs for the publication and promotion during the public consultation on the 'Case for Change' business case.

Description	Total Spend
Mileage and expenses	£969.58
Printing costs	£650.77
Production of promotional banners	£284.40
Total Spend:	£1,904.75

Under Section 21(1) of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), public authorities are not required to provide information that is reasonably accessible to the public by other means, in this case via the OPCCN website. Therefore in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), this serves as a Refusal Notice for the first part of your request.

Please use the link below to access the relevant section of the website:

Director of Performance and Scrutiny

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk

Internal Review

If you think we have not supplied information in accordance with Section 1 (the General Right of Access) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, or you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, then you should write, in the first instance, to:

Mark Stokes
Chief Executive
Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk
Building 8
Jubilee House
Falconers Chase
Wymondham
Norfolk
NR18 0WW

Telephone: 01953 424455

Fax: 01953 424462

Email: opccn@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

If you are dissatisfied in any way with our response or the way we have handled your request, you can contact us by phone, email or in writing. We may, in the first instance, try and resolve your complaint informally. However, at any stage you can request or we may decide to treat your complaint formally under our internal review process.

An internal review is conducted by the Chief Executive who will review the request and response, taking account of your complaint(s), and will respond in writing as soon as possible. The Information Commissioner's Officer recommends that a response should be made in 20 working days. If we are unable to respond in this timeframe we will inform you and provide a date by which you should expect to receive our response.

If, after the internal review, you remain dissatisfied then you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, the government regulator for the Freedom of Information Act. Details of how to contact the Information Commissioner's Office can be found at www.ico.gov.uk
