The Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk (PCC) in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) has launched a local initiative called 'Gateway to Employment' which aims to assist people with criminal convictions to get back into work. DETAIL OF THE SUBMISSION

1. OBJECTIVE:

1.1 To approve funding to pilot a Court Mentor, with the view of expansion of provision, dependant on outcomes of pilot evaluation. The Court Mentor is a face to face role offering support to families and friends of those people who receive custodial, suspended or community sentences and defendants themselves.

2. BACKGROUND:

2.1 Evidence shows that many employers have a skills shortage and would benefit from an increased pool of suitable candidates from which to recruit. Unfilled vacancies can have an economic impact on any business and increase pressure on other employees attempting to make up the resourcing short fall.

2.2 By providing this opportunity the OCPGN is offering hope to people with convictions, encouraging other employers to recruit from this talent pool, enhance the local economy while helping to break the cycle of offending and offer the tools needed to secure a job for the future.

2.3 The Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk (PCC) in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) has launched a local initiative called 'Gateway to Employment' which aims to assist people with criminal convictions to get back into work.

3. AREAS FOR CONSIDERATION:

3.1 In support of the Gateway to Employment campaign, the PCC's office will employ a serving Category D prisoner from HMP Norwich to work as Court Mentor at Norwich Magistrates' Court.

The Court Mentor Role will...

- work at Norwich Magistrates' Court for two days a week - Tuesdays and Fridays when GAP courts are sitting (guilty pleas)

- create a rehabilitative pathway and contribute to preventing future offending and victimisation

- support the emotional wellbeing of the families and friends of defendants and defendants themselves, who are sentenced to custody or made the subject of a community order or suspended sentence

- provide an opportunity for a serving offender to develop new transferable skills around mentoring to aid their rehabilitation on release from prison

- fill a gap in the current provision of the Probation Service and/or Court Ushers and to enhance offender activity within HMP Norwich.
3.2 After engaging with the Court Mentor it is envisaged that defendants, their families and friends, will be better equipped to cope with the stressful situation they find themselves in and be re-connected to their local communities and support networks available. It is further hoped that family relationships will be maintained/improved upon.

3.3 This scheme further supports those who are attempting to navigate their way around complex systems and providers, thus reducing further alienation and disconnect from the very communities and services who can offer additional help during this very stressful period in their lives.

4. OTHER OPTIONS CONSIDERED:

4.1 Not to fund Court Mentor scheme – this option has been rejected as it is felt this ground breaking idea for Norfolk not only offers hope and aspirations to the selected offender, but further enhances the work of the Courts and Probation Service.

5. STRATEGIC AIDS/OBJECTIVE SUPPORTED:

5.1 The delivery of the Court Mentor pilot service supports the Police and Crime Commissioners strategic aim of preventing offending by addressing the underlying causes through continued collaboration and new innovative responses.

6. FINANCIAL AND OTHER RESOURCE IMPLICATIONS:

6.1 The total grant is for £2500 and this is contained within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner commissioning budget.

7. OTHER IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS:

7.1 None arising from the report.

HMP/YOI Norwich

a) Purpose/Key Deliverables

The Police and Crime Commissioner for Norfolk (PCC) in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) has launched a local initiative called 'Gateway to Employment' which aims to assist people with criminal convictions to get back into work. As part of this initiative it is proposed that the PCC's office will employ a serving Category 'D' prisoner from HMP Norwich to work as Court Mentor at Norwich Magistrates' Court.

Working with the prison, the PCC's office will pay the Court Mentor in accordance with prison guidelines to offer support and guidance to the families and friends of defendants and defendants themselves, who are sentenced to custody or made the subject of a community order.

The proposal is for one male Category 'D' prisoner from HMP Norwich to be selected to perform the Court Mentor role at Norwich Magistrates' Court. A rigorous selection procedure will be adopted in order to select the right person for this role. An advertisement will be placed in Britannia House seeking applications. There will be an assessment and interview process. The Court Mentor will at all times will remain the responsibility of HMP Norwich.

The successful applicant will be expected to be at Norwich Magistrates' Court for two days a week - Tuesdays and Fridays when GAP courts are sitting (guilty pleas) and wear an identification badge stating 'Gateway to Employment'. The Court Mentor does not require any equipment and does not require any access to court facilities other than those that are already available to the public on the concourse.

There will be an induction and training process. The Court Mentor will be expected to come through the Court's security procedures in same way as any other member of the public. For the first few days, a previous court mentor will be on site for ongoing support as well as a Community Liaison Officers from Britannia House (Prison Officers who specialise in the re-settlement of ex-offenders) and Probation Officer.

The Court Mentor role is a face to face role offering support to families and friends of those people who receive custodial sentences which could involve the following:

- signposting families to contacts at a particular prison
- outlining next steps
- providing information about visiting arrangements
- directing families to organisations that can help them
- liaising with ushers and defence solicitors to provide the necessary support
- Provide additional support to those sentenced to community orders once they have had their initial interview with the Probation Service.
A job description for the role is readily available.

The idea is to pilot this role for six months with an initial review of how it is working after four weeks. At the end of the six month pilot there will be a further review to determine whether the Court Mentor role should be continued and, if so, how it could be developed.

b) Outputs
- A six month pilot, delivered by someone with lived experience
- Attending Norwich Magistrates Court all day on Tuesday and Fridays (guilty plea courts sitting)

c) KPI's
- Attendance rates for court mentor to aim for 100%
- Court Mentor to move on to further training/education, apprenticeships, employment
- Court Mentor to become course mentor/ambassador for future courses

d) Outcomes
- provide offenders with an opportunity to develop new transferable skills around mentoring to aid their rehabilitation on release from prison
- to provide constructive activities in the Magistrates Court environment to support the emotional wellbeing of the families and friends of defendants and defendants themselves, who are sentenced to custody or made the subject of a community order
